Flossbach von Storch investment sub-fund under Luxembourg law (mutual fund) and authorised for distribution in Portugal.

INVESTMENT STRATEGY

The Fund pursues an active investment approach. The Fund Manager can invest flexibly in the asset classes that appear attractive from his/her point of view in the respective capital market environment; the equity component is at least 25 per cent.

The basis for asset allocation is the Fund's own independent investment world view. The Fund deliberately does not follow any benchmark index. The primary objective is to generate sustainably attractive returns. Whether an individual investment is attractive is assessed within the framework of a thorough company analysis.

The risk-reward ratio is decisive for every investment decision; the potential return must clearly overcompensate for any risk of loss. The portfolio structure is based on the five guidelines of the Flossbach von Storch Pentagram diversification, quality, flexibility, solvency, and value. The composition of the portfolio is made by the Fund Manager exclusively in accordance with the criteria defined in the investment policy and is regularly reviewed and adjusted if necessary.

The investment strategy includes in-house valuation models, ESG integration, engagement, and the exercise of voting rights. In addition, exclusion criteria defined within the Sub-Fund's investment policy are taken into account. The Sub-Fund is classified as an Article 8 product within the definition of the Disclosure Regulation (EU) 2019/2088 (SFDR). For detailed information on the objectives and investment policy, please refer to the current Sales Prospectus and the Key Information Document (PRIIP-KID).

EXPLANATORY NOTES REGARDING PERFORMANCE

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Performance is calculated based on the net asset value (NAV). The subscription fee, as well as other fees, are not taken into account and therefore have a negative effect on the performance of the investment. Example calculation (subscription fee included): An investor wishes to buy shares with capital of €1,000. Based on a maximum subscription fee of 5%, €50 will be deducted from their investment as a one off initial charge. In addition, custody fees may be applied.

Please refer to the cost details presented in this document to determine the maximum subscription fee for the share class of the sub-fund

The reference index is merely informative. It does not constitute any obligation to track the index or achieve the same performance for the fund manager.

MONTHLY COMMENTARY

At the start of the month, weak labour market data in the USA triggered major turbulence on the capital markets worldwide. The associated expectation of falling US interest rates weakened the US dollar, particularly against the Japanese yen. Investors who had invested in US assets with cheap yen loans (so-called carry trades) bought yen to redeem their loans and sold the shares they had acquired. The US S&P 500 equity index lost up to 10% compared to the peak reached in July. Japanese shares were hit even harder: the Nikkei 225 Index lost 20% in just three days, including 12.4% on 5 August alone, which was the biggest daily loss since Black Monday in 1987. However, concerns that further carry trades would have to be unwound and shares sold on a large scale quickly evaporated and the markets were quickly able to recover their losses. The US S&P 500 index closed the month up a good two per cent. The price of gold also rose by more than two per cent, exceeding the USD 2,530 per troy ounce mark for the first time in August. However, the weakness of the US dollar left only a minimal gain of 0.1 per cent in euro terms.

The Fund achieved a gain of 1.2 % in August. We benefited from the more balanced selection of individual stocks with less focus on technology stocks, which suffered particularly from the turbulence at the start of the month. The Fund benefited above all from share-price increases and dividends in defensive stocks, such as Unilever, Reckitt Benckiser, Berkshire Hathaway and Deutsche Börse. Starbucks shares rose by 22% following the announcement of a change at the top of the company. Pressure has also increased on the management boards of other companies that are performing below their potential. At Nestlé, the recently unhappy CEO Schneider was replaced, and the board at Nike is also under increasing scrutiny. These examples illustrate the importance of good management at established companies whose lustre has recently suffered somewhat.

At an individual stock level, we have only made minor changes in recent months. At the end of August, we bought the equivalent of 0.3% put options on the US S&P 500 index, which should limit the portfolio's losses in the event of a significant market correction.

OPPORTUNITIES

- + Flexible investment policy without benchmarking.
- + Risk is broadly diversified by investing in a range of asset classes (e.g. equities, bonds, convertible bonds and precious metals indirect). Market potential can be exploited by investing across a wide range.
- + Investing in assets denominated in a foreign currency can have a positive impact on unit values as a result of exchange rate movements.
- + Derivatives can be used to increase potential yields.
- + Precious metals [indirect] (e.g. in the form of gold) can be used to increase potential yields.

RISKS

- Market risks: The securities in which the Management Company invests the sub-fund assets present opportunities for gain but also the possibility of risk. The ESG criteria restrict the selection of target investments in terms of category and number, sometimes considerably. If a sub-fund invests directly or indirectly in securities and other assets, it is subject to many general trends and tendencies on the markets, which are sometimes attributable to irrational factors, particularly on the securities markets. Losses can occur when the market value of the assets decreases against the cost price. If a unit holder disposes of units in a sub-fund at a time when the quoted price of the sub-fund assets is less than at the time of investment, then the unit holder will not recover the full value of the investment. While each sub-fund constantly strives to achieve growth, growth cannot be guaranteed. The risk exposure of the investor is, however, limited to the sum invested. There is no obligation to make additional capital contributions beyond investors' investments.
- Currency risks: If a sub-fund holds assets which are denominated in foreign currencies, it shall be subject to currency risk. In the event of a devaluation of the foreign currency against the reference currency of the subfund, the value of the assets held in foreign currencies shall fall.
- Credit risks: The fund may invest part of its assets in bonds. The issuers of these bonds could become insolvent, causing the bonds to lose some or all of their value.
- Interest change risks: Investing in securities at a fixed rate of interest is connected with the possibility that the current interest rate at the time of issuance of a security could change. If the current interest rate increases as against the interest at the time of issue, fixed rate securities will generally decrease in value. Conversely, if the current interest rate falls, fixed rate securities will increase.
- Risks relating to the use of derivatives: The fund may enter into derivative transactions for the purposes listed in the key information document (PRIIP-KID) and the sales prospectus. This means increased opportunities, but also increased risk of losses. The use of derivatives to hedge against losses may also reduce the profit opportunities of the fund.
- Risks of precious metals and commodities: Precious metals and commodities may be subject to greater price fluctuations. Trading prices may also fall.
